CLOUD APPLICATION MIGRATION FACTORY

With a registry of applications assessed for cloud migration, your organisation is ready to deliver the next step in your cloud journey! Our Cloud Application Migration Factory provides a burst of skilled resources and the processes needed to ensure your applications are successfully deployed to the cloud.

Built around the four pillars of code, data, infrastructure and configuration, Trustmarque's 'factory' methodology identifies the key elements of your application and plans their individual transformation to a new cloud environment. Maximising use of repeatable assets for the most efficient deployment, your migration factory is an easily deployed, low risk way to achieve your objectives.

Our cloud migration team provide the short-term burst of expertise required to perform migration activities; safe hands into which to entrust your application estate. Once complete, we'll hand over all the assets you need to continue developing your cloud environments and support your organisations' IT vision.
